This coloring book can be used as a personal prayer and devotional or as a small-group prayer prompts. Before coloring the page, take the time to read the verse prompts. As you are coloring, pray, silently or audibly. If used in a group, I suggest playing instrumental music and allowing some time for individuals to color a page and then begin corporate prayer. I have also included prayer journal pages with a prayer focus prompt for those who may need a little help getting started. You will also find blank pages after every prayer journal page that you can use to be creative and draw your own pictures. I pray this coloring book is a blessing to anyone who chooses to use it.

What Others are saying about
“Delighting in the Law of Lord- Psalm 119 DevArtJournal...”

I consider it both an honor as well as a privilege to endorse this very fine study of Psalm 119. Within its pages you will find a study that is comprehensive, exhaustive, creative and most of all, interactive. The blessings of the text will come alive in a way never before experienced by each participant of the study as they become thoroughly immersed in a "line upon line, precept upon precept" guide to this wonderful passage of Psalm 119. I highly recommend this engaging study for any Pastor or Group Leader desiring to be able to lead their participants in being able to draw fully from this powerful text as it has been masterfully prepared by the author.

Creator, innovator, teacher, minister, visionary and friend; these are all words used to describe Laura Brown, who singlehandedly, I believe, with this book, will change the way meditation, prayer, and journaling is “supposed” to be done! We study the Psalm to gain an understanding of history and an appreciation of worship. Thank God for “right-brained” individuals to have permission to “be”...to create...to be free! This book outlines a practical way to apply Psalm 119 to our modern lives by emphasizing how God is the same yesterday, today and forever. As a Licensed Professional Counselor and Teacher, as well as a Pastor, I appreciate how Laura has married scripture, education, and psychology to enhance the learning experience(s) of those who get a “little” distracted by traditional methods of studying. I urge you to “relax”, “relate”, “release”, and as Laura has encouraged...get your crayons, colored pencils, and a mug of your favorite hot beverage. Open your heart, mind, and ears to what Holy Spirit releases unto you during this study. Enjoy!
